A Note to the parents from JP Blevins:

Attending 4-5 basketball camps every summer growing up, I came to expect the same from each. I would be integrated with 250 other kids, play some pick-up games, do a few drills, and go home after about 3 ½ days. The instruction was nothing special and it felt more like a baby-sitting service. I knew I could offer something more beneficial than this. So in 2005, I founded 'Get The Edge' Basketball. "Get The Edge" is dedicated to providing basketball instruction, resources and tools to aid young athletes in reaching their full potential. The last four years 'Get The Edge' has been focused on Individual Instruction Courses. However, I'm extremely excited to offer our fourth 'Get The Edge' Basketball Camp.

After playing four years at the University of Kentucky, attending over 75 basketball camps across the country, and currently serving as a private basketball development coach, I see one recurring tragedy with young players: many kids have the desire to get better, many have the ability, many possess the work ethic, but most young athletes have no idea HOW to get better. 'Get The Edge' Basketball Camp will solve this problem!

I have partnered with Richard Grier, who has coached and run camps for 14 years in this area, to produce the best possible camp in this region. We have also partnered with I am 3rd Sports who have a great tradition in Christian athletics in this region. I have also sought out some of the best coaches in the state! The coaches who will be assisting us with the camp have either played college basketball or have extensive experience coaching the game and have a great love for God and kids.

Don't miss out on this awesome opportunity for us to pass along to you the skills, techniques, practice plan, mentality and the motivation that it takes to get ahead and reach your full potential as a basketball player!

In Christ,

JP Blevins

Campers will develop:

- An understanding and ability of the fundamental skills of basketball
- Advanced skills in the areas of ball handling, dribbling, passing, shooting, defense and more
- Experience through individual daily competitions
- Team concepts through scrimmages each day
- Connections with area coaches through low camper to coach ratio

All campers get a camp shirt, basketball, practice plan and more!
